The R.:E.:Deputy Grand High Priest read the following address:

DEPUTY GRAND HIGH PRIEST'S ADDRESS.

To the Officers and Companions of the Grand Chapter of New Brunswick:

DEAR COMPANIONS:

With thanks to Almighty God for His many great blessings to us, especially for the privilege of meeting here today, I welcome you to this our Thirty-seventh Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter of New Brunswick in the beautiful City of Moncton, where we have so very many Companions of our Noble Order, whose welcome is always of the most brotherly nature.

You are all aware of the lamentable loss which brought me to this office a few months ago.

The founders of our Institution were wise when they made provision that when one dies another shall continue on the good work.

It also shows to us how frail life is; we rush on, we die, yet the world does not stop.

I hope that this session of our Grand Chapter may be of great benefit to our Order, and that all the business done may be done under the guidance and with the blessing of the Great Architect of the Universe.

OFFICIAL ACTS.

In my short time in office I have not been called upon in any official way except to appoint several Representatives of sister Grand Chapters near the Grand Chapter of New Brunswick, which our Grand Secretary will report upon.

VISITATIONS.

In the short space of time at my disposal I have visited every Chapter except three, viz., Fredericton, No. 2, Mount Lebanon, No. 5, Campbellton, No. 11.

I went to Fredericton personally and met the Excellent High Priest and offered to meet with them at any time convenient to them, not hearing from them I presume they could not get together in the hot weather; he reports all well.

Mount Lebanon, No. 5, I had accompanied our late M.:E.:Grand High Priest a year before and found this Chapter in excellent condition, and my time being short I did not get back to them.

Campbellton, No. 11, I was at their Institution and again a year ago at their Consecration, and knowing them to be fully alive, I could not make arrangements again in the short time I had.

On May 13th an official visitation of the Deputy Grand High Priest was made to St. Stephen Chapter, No. 6, accompanied by R.:E.:Julius T. Whitlock, R.:E.:James Vroom, E.:Geo. F. Pinder, R.:E.:Arthur H. Hiltz, E.:Wm. Laughlan, R.:E.:Ven. Archdeacon Newnham and E.:Dr. Sawaya, Grand Captain of the Host. They had four candidates for the Mark Master degree and Past Master degree, which were worked, and the work was done very satisfactorily. This Chapter is blessed with such Companions as J. T. Whitlock, James Vroom, A. H. Hiltz, and many others who are the very backbone of our Order, always on hand, ever ready to assist one or all — may they be long spared to us is my prayer. E.:High Priest Wall is the right man in the right place, and received us very graciously.

On May 14th I made an official visit to Edmundston Chapter, No. 10, as in January last I had installed these officers and encouraged them in their good work, for as a new Chapter in a French district of our Province they need our assistance, and on my visit May 14th I found great enthusiasm. They had received fifteen applications and eight new ones to come. I again visited them in August. I have many good things to say of Edmundston, No. 10. E. High Priest Rev. N. Franchetti is a hard worker and will do all in his power.

On May 15th an official visit was made by the Deputy Grand High Priest to Woodstock Chapter, No. 8, accompanied by P. H. P. Albert G. Field, as Grand King, P. H. P. Guy J. Gabel, as Grand Secretary, P. H. P. C. Godfrey Newnham, as Grand Captain of the Host. The Mark Master degree was put on very nicely indeed. This Chapter is doing good work with E. H. P. J. Henry DeWitt at their head.

On May 20th an official visit was made to Union Chapter, No. 4, by the Deputy Grand High Priest, accompanied by M. E. W. Leonard Ellis, M. E. LeBaron Wilson, M. E. Horace A. Porter, E. Enoch Thompson, E. Wm. R. Bennett, E. Dr. Sawaya, Captain of Host, E. C. Leonard Jenkins, E. Sam. Parkhill, E. W. R. White. Ex. High Priest Emerson made it very pleasant for us. They put on some work for us, which was done in their usual nice way. This Chapter is doing excellently.

On May 28th an official visit was made by the Deputy Grand High Priest to Botsford Chapter, No. 7, accompanied by R. E. Orville Dobson, Grand King; M. E. George Ackman, as Grand Scribe; M. E. Wood Kyle, as Treasurer; E. A. R. Fraser, as Secretary; V. E. Dr. Sawaya, Grand Captain of the Host; E. H. M. Phinney, as Grand Royal Arch Captain.

We received a companion's welcome from Ex. High Priest H. A. Carson and as usual in Botsford Chapter everybody seemed happy; and we all parted feeling much better after you might almost say a love feast.

On June 16th an official visit was made by the Deputy Grand High Priest to Sussex Chapter, No. 9, accompanied by R. E. Orville Dobson, Grand King; M. E. Wood Kyle, as Grand Scribe; M. E. J. J. Daly, as Treasurer; E. W. R. White, as Secretary; V. E. F. S. Sawaya, Grand Captain of the Host; E. A. E. Pearson, as Royal Arch Captain; E. J. T. Kirk, as Tyler. Ex. High Priest W. P. Erb makes good in his office as he does on the road. I was glad to visit this Chapter in the town where I was born and to enjoy afresh the right hand of fellowship from my good Companions of Sussex Chapter, No. 9.

On January 17, at the request of our late Most Excellent Grand High Priest, I accompanied him on his official visit to Carleton Chapter, No. 1, where I installed the officers for 1924 in due and ancient form. This being my Mother Chapter I did not consider another visit necessary as I know the excellent work being done by the officers and members of this Chapter.

You will see that I have had a very busy four months.

On Tuesday, June 10th, 1924, I visited the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Nova Scotia, who have Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland under their jurisdiction, in Annual Convocation at the Town of Bridgewater, N. S. M. E. Companion John W. Logan, G. H. P., received me with Grand Honors, and assured me of the love and esteem which the Grand Chapter of Nova Scotia had towards the Grand Chapter of New Brunswick.

I also visited the Convocation of the Order of High Priesthood of Nova Scotia and witnessed a beautiful degree which took an hour and a half to finish. I was received most graciously and brotherly, which was a great pleasure to me.

DEATHS.

The hand of death has been busy among us. First it is my duty to report to you the death of our whose death occurred Saturday, April 12th, at his home, 247 Douglas Avenue. During his sickness I made very many visits to him and knew full well his love for the Chapter and its work.

MOST EXCELLENT GRAND HIGH PRIEST

GEORGE E. DAY

I do not know as I can find words to express our sorrow for one who was loved by all—he was always with us—ever ready to help — always had a kind word for everybody — his smiling countenance will be missed among us.

This is the first time we have had our M.'E.'. Grand High Priest die while in office.

I would recommend that a page in our minutes be engrossed to the memory of

M.'E.'.GEORGE E. DAY, G.H.P.

Other deaths:

WM. H. STEVENS, St. Stephen Chapter, No. 6.

E. KENNETH CONNELL, Woodstock Chapter, No. 8.

GEO. M. FAIRWEATHER, Sussex Chapter, No. 9.

CHARLES H. PERRY, Sussex Chapter, No. 9.

SUGGESTIONS.

I would recommend that we make a Ruling that any High Priest must himself be anointed before he can exalt any one to the Sublime Degree of Royal Arch Mason.

And that we make provision that he can get the High Priesthood soon after his election or installation, either by arranging with the Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood, or, should that Body amalgamate with this Grand Chapter, then by arranging with the President who may be in charge of the Degree of the High Priesthood.

In conclusion, I have only words of love and esteem for all our Companions, their extreme kindness I can never forget.

I have especially to thank Companion J. Twining Hartt, our Grand Secretary, for his extreme courteous assistance to me at all times; to Dr. Sawaya, our Grand Captain of the Host, who has been ever ready to assist me in any way possible.

And may the blessing of God be with every one of you and your loved ones, is my earnest wish.

Faternally,

W. H. SMITH,
D.G.H.P.

On motion of M.'.E.'. D. W. Kyle, it was resolved,

"That the address of the Deputy Grand High Priest be referred to a Committee for consideration and report."

M.'.E.'.George Ackman and R.'.E.'.O. B. Dobson were constituted the Committee.

The following report of the R.'.E.'.Grand Secretary was read and, on motion of V.'.E.'.Roy E. Crawford, it was received and laid on the table.

Audit Committee.

The following interesting Communication is presented to Grand Chapter and the Committee regrets the delay which has necessarily occurred, inasmuch as the letter was received but a few days after the Annual Convocation in August last.

GRAND CHAPTER

ROYAL ARCH MASONS OF SASKATCHEWAN

312 Westman Chambers,
REGINA, SASK., CANADA.

August 21, 1923.

To the Most Excellent the Grand High Priest, the Grand Officers, and Excellent Companions of the Grand Chapter of New Brunswick, Royal Arch Masons:

MOST EXCELLENT SIR AND COMPANIONS:

The Chapters of Royal Arch Masons in Saskatchewan petitioned the Mother Grand Chapter (the Grand Chapter of Canada) for permission to form a Grand Chapter in the Province of Saskatchewan. Permission to do so was graciously granted at the Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter of Canada held in the City of Toronto, Ontario, on February 28th and March 1st, A.D. 1923.

On June 12th, 1923, the Grand Chapter of Saskatchewan was formed in the City of Regina by Most Excellent Companion R. H. Spencer, Grand Z. of the Grand Chapter of Canada.

I am instructed to petition the Grand Chapter of New Brunswick to recognize the Grand Chapter of Saskatchewan and also to ask for exchange of Representatives.

Fraternally yours,

FRANCIS B. REILLY,
Grand Scribe E.

The Executive Committee recommends that Grand Chapter extend a cordial recognition to the Grand Chapter of Saskatchewan, and that fraternal relations with it be at once entered into. This new Jurisdiction already has twenty-two active Chapters and a membership of 2,522.

The resolution of Grand Chapter regarding The New Brunswick Protestant Orphans' Home was carried into effect immediately after the last Convocation and the Grand Treasurer was subsequently in receipt of the following acknowledgment:

SAINT JOHN, N. B.,
October 19th, 1923.

To the Officers and Members of Grand Royal Arch Chapter of New Brunswick:

GENTLEMEN:

I am in receipt today, through your Treasurer, Mr. Peter Campbell, of a cheque for the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00), a contribution from your Grand Chapter, in aid of the good work we are striving to do in our Orphans' Homes, and on behalf of our Directorate I desire to thank you sincerely for your very liberal help which will materially aid us to "carry on."

Trusting to still merit the confidence and support of your influential organization in carrying on our work, and again expressing our appreciation of your liberality,

I remain, fraternally yours,

H. C. RANKINE,
Treasurer The New Brunswick Protestant Orphans' Home.

On behalf of the Executive Committee,

W. H. SMITH, D.G.H.P.,
President.

Moved by R.:E.:James Vroom, seconded by R.:E.:
O. B. Dobson,

"That this Grand Chapter extend formal recognition to the 'Grand Chapter Royal Arch Masons of Saskatchewan,' and that fraternal relations be entered into with it, together with an exchange of Grand Representatives."— Carried.

On motion it was ordered,

"That the reports of the Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary be taken from the table and filed."

The usual grant of twenty dollars was voted to the Library Committee.

Also on motion of M.:E.:D. W. Kyle the usual annual allowance was granted to the R.:E.:Grand Secretary for his services during the past year.

The Committee on the Address of the R.:E.:Deputy Grand High Priest submitted its report and the same was duly received and adopted:

REPORT ON DEPUTY GRAND HIGH PRIEST'S ADDRESS.

To the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of New Brunswick:

The Committee on the Address of the R.:E.:Deputy Grand High Priest beg leave to report as follows:

We agree with the Deputy Grand High Priest that Grand Chapter should collectively and individually render sincere thanks to the Great Architect of the Universe for His providential care of us during the past year.

As a Grand Chapter we mourn the loss of our late M.:E.:Companion George E. Day, who was removed by death during his term of office; and in this connection we would remind Grand Chapter that this is the first time in its history that the Grand Chapter of New Brunswick has had the head of the Grand Chapter removed by death while holding office.

Your Committee would recommend that a memorial page be placed in the Annual Report to his memory.

Your Committee note with pleasure that the Deputy Grand High Priest has endeavored to do all he could in the way of visiting the Chapters.

Your Committee suggest that during the incumbency of the incoming Grand High Priest, that if he is not able to visit a Chapter himself, that he arrange for the Deputy Grand High Priest to make such visits, as we are assured that the visit of the Grand High Priest, or the Deputy Grand High Priest, to any subordinate Chapter is looked forward to with pleasure.

With reference to the suggestion made by the Deputy Grand High Priest in regard to the anointing of an Elected High Priest before he could exalt any candidate to the sublime degree of Royal Arch Mason, this is something that should be seriously considered by this Grand Body.

If it is thought it would be of benefit to Capitular Masonry in this province, we think the suggestion might be adopted, but as it is a new move in Capitular Masonry in this province we would suggest that the matter lay over until the next regular Annual Convocation of Grand Chapter, and that the matter be first placed before and considered by the Executive Committee.

Fraternally submitted,

GEO. ACKMAN.

O. B. DOBSON.

Grand Chapter then, on motion, proceeded to the election of Grand Officers and E. C. Companions William P. Erb, C. Godfrey Newnham and Heber A. Carson were appointed scrutineers.

Written nominations were duly made for each office and ballots taken, and the scrutineers reported the following E. C. Companions as having received, in each case, a majority of the votes cast:

R. E. WILLIAM H. SMITH, Grand High Priest.

R. E. ORVILLE B. DOBSON, Deputy Grand High Priest.

R. E. R. ARCH'D SNOWBALL, Grand King.

V. E. FARRIS S. SAWAYA, Grand Scribe.

R. E. PETER CAMPBELL, Grand Treasurer.

R. E. J. TWINING HARTT, Grand Secretary.

Declaration was made from the East that these officers had been duly elected.

Companion Robert Clerke, on the nomination of E. A. E. Pearson, was re-elected Grand Tyler.

The officers elect, all being present, were then regularly installed by M. E. George Ackman, P. G. H. P.

The M. E. Grand High Priest announced the following appointments:

E. SAMUEL J. PARKHILL, Grand Captain of the Host.
E. C. GODFREY NEWNHAM, Grand Royal Arch Captain.

Grand Chapter was then closed in ample form.
